- 1 teaspoon ground black pepper, or to taste
- 1 pinch salt, to taste

Black Pepper Beef and Cabbage Stir Fry

•Gather ingredients. Heat a wok or large skillet over medium-high heat, and add oil. Saute garlic for about 5 seconds, then add ground beef. Stir-fry until beef is evenly brown, 5 to 7 minutes; drain excess fat. Stir in cabbage and pepper, and cook until vegetables are tender and beef is fully cooked. Stir in soy sauce. Mix together cornstarch and water, and stir in. Season with pepper; add salt to taste. Cook, stirring, until sauce has thickened. Serve hot and enjoy!

Chicken Spaghetti

- 12 oz. package angel hair pasta
- 2 cups chopped cooked chicken breast
- 10.75 oz. can condensed cream of chicken soup
- 10 oz. can diced tomatoes with green chile peppers
- 3/4 (8 ounce) package processed cheese, cubed
- 1/2 (4 ounce) jar sliced mushrooms, drained salt and pepper to taste

•Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to a boil. Cook angel hair pasta in the boiling water, stirring occasionally, until tender yet firm to the bite, 4 to 5 minutes. Drain pasta and return it to the pot. Add chopped chicken, condensed soup, diced tomatoes with chile peppers, processed cheese, mushrooms, salt, and pepper. Cook and stir over low heat until cheese is melted and mixture is heated through, about 5 minutes.

Read: Psalm 119:33-40

Your testimonies also are my delight and my counselors. Psalm 119:24

Several years ago, these words appeared on the cover of the Grand Rapids telephone directory: "Look in the book first." It was a reminder to check its pages for numbers before calling the operator.

That reminded me of a spiritual parallel: Before we meet any challenge or seek the Lord's blessing on our lives, we should look first in His Book for His direction and guidance. When we neglect to look in the Bible, we risk getting involved in relationships that He cannot bless and in activities that God does not approve.

In his book Hints to Young Christians, O. T. Gifford made the following comment: "If you're getting lazy, read James. If your faith is below par, read Paul. If you're impatient, consider the book of Job. If you're a little strongheaded, go and see Moses. If you're weak-kneed, have a look at Elijah. If there is no song in your heart, listen to David. If you feel spiritually chilly, get the beloved disciple John to put his arms around you. And if you're losing sight of the future, climb to Revelation and get a glimpse of heaven!"

Friend, as you face life today with its many demands, let the Bible be your counselor. Look in the Book first! by Henry G. Bosch

O grant us grace, almighty Lord,
To live according to Your Word,

Its truth in meekness to believe,
And all its precepts to receive. —Anon.

The truths of the Bible are to be applied in life.

Antiques and Collecting
by Terry and Kim Kovel

Q: I found the strangest tea set in my father's attic. It must be for children because the pieces are small. The background is white with an old lady holding a baby, a jester, and a frog smoking a pipe printed in red. The border and flowers are red, too. Most pieces have "Punch" printed on the bottom. There are 16 pieces, and all are in great condition. Can you tell me anything about the set?

A: The tea set is a children's set made by Charles Allerton & Sons, Staffordshire, England, in the late 19th century. The figures you describe are the famous slapstick puppets, Punch and Judy and their baby. The Punch character originated in 16th-century Italy. The puppets have been popular for about 350 years. Tea sets like yours have recently sold for $110 to $160. ©2023 King Features TIP: Early (18th-century) glass is thinner than later glass. Early mirrors reflect a darker image than new mirrors.

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Thankful for the Past, Appreciative of the Present, Concern for the Future (Part 2 of 2)

If you are a regular reader, you know last week I had the opportunity to share details of Thanksgiving Past. Not long past, but rather, my past and how our family Thanksgiving celebrations were such an important part of my outdoor heritage, which was handed down from generation to generation. However, things have changed over the years because of family dynamics and eternal circumstances created by the PA Game Commission's transition in 2019 from the traditional Monday after Thanksgiving opening day of firearms deer season to two days earlier on the Saturday after Thanksgiving to expand hunting chances.

If you're not familiar with the logic behind the transition in our firearm deer season's opening day, allow me to share some of the background as I know it. Pennsylvania has a long, rich deer hunting tradition, which according to the National Deer Association (NDA) results in the highest density in the nation, 14.4 deer hunters per square mile, based on statistics from 2021, the most recent data available. This past Saturday, Nov. 25, 2023, it is estimated 650,000 hunters headed out into "Penns Woods" in pursuit of deer. That is a staggering number of hunters afield; however, that number was up around 1-million back in the early 1980's, when I graduated high school and attended college. For the past 40-years, our PA hunting population and the number of hunters across the United States has been on a long, slow downward trend as more baby-boomers age out of the sport, than younger people take up hunting.

There was a notable uptick in hunting participation during the COVID-19 pandemic, when many folks found they had additional discretionary time available, however that surge was temporary. Back in 2018, the PGC surveyed thousands of former PA hunters who no longer purchased a hunting license and found the biggest decline came amongst individuals, who were 18 to 23 years of age. This coincided with completing high school and either going off to college or entering the work force. When asked to explain why they ceased hunting, the two most prominent responses were: (1) In high school, I got the Monday after Thanksgiving off to go hunting, but that doesn't happen in college; and (2) Now that I'm in the work force, I'm the "low person" in seniority and while others take off to go hunting, I have to work the Monday after Thanksgiving. The Saturday opener starting in 2019 and the addition of limited Sunday hunting in 2020 (which includes the Sunday after Thanksgiving for firearms deer) are intended to address these concerns of the 18 to 23 year-old demographic, which had given up hunting at a concerning rate.

One alarming second-order effect of the transition to a Saturday opener has been the negative impact on small businesses across rural Pennsylvania. While many hunters previously went up to camp on Friday and then spent substantial sums of money on food, gas, lodging, sporting goods, etc. for multiple days before the Monday opener, they now frequently do a "turn-and-burn", which means arriving Friday, hunting Saturday, and then heading home, thus not spending additional money at rural PA businesses. This has also impacted Volunteer Fire Departments and Fraternal Organizations, who often conducted fund-raising breakfasts or dinners for visiting hunters, and those cooperative efforts were frequently a significant portion of their budget's annual income. Some PA Legislators have made initiatives to return to a Monday season opener because the financial impact has been so significant in their rural districts.

Our family's Thanksgiving Present is much less outdoor-oriented, but does always include a lengthy family walk between our meal and dessert in order to have the opportunity to talk and catch up on a myriad of topics. This year, we gathered at our son's in Bethel Park (Pittsburgh's South Hills) and it was interesting to see sign's announcing "Archery Deer Hunting in Progress" posted throughout the small community park we walked through. I quickly made the observation it was the first-time we hadn't seen any deer wandering the park when we walked there. Family is such a blessing and spending time together is nothing any of us should take for granted. When it comes to Thanksgiving Future and our outdoor heritage, I would like to see Pennsylvania move in the direction of 22 other states and at some point adopt a PA State Constitutional Amendment ensuring citizens the right to hunt and fish for perpetuity. While our PA State Motto is "Virtue, Liberty, and Independence" and you would think it includes our basic right to hunt and fish, I would feel more comfortable for my descendants and yours, if that became codified and the law in PA. More details on that initiative to follow at some point. Here's hoping your Thanksgiving was awesome and "Thanks-Living" is your daily norm! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2023 mands every day, at home and at the park. Teach him to walk on the leash calmly at your side.

2. Work with a companion who will ring the doorbell from outside, while you command Jake to sit after the bell sounds.
3. Put Jake on a leash. Answer the door to the companion; when Jake tries to jump up, tug the leash once and command him to sit.
Remember to use positive reinforcement during training - lots of praise, with a treat when he follows a command correctly. Avoid negative enforcement like scolding, yelling or hauling on the leash.
Jake will not be perfectly behaved for some time; you should keep his leash attached at home when you expect visitors. If he gets overexcited when a visitor arrives and he won't sit, take him to his crate or another room until he calms down.
Even after he masters the training and is better behaved at home and on the leash, you'll need to train him regularly so that he doesn't slip back into his jumping-up habit. ©2023 King Features Synd., Inc.

• On internet memes, they call them "life hacks," simple tricks to save you perhaps time, money or simply frustration. Here's mine: Place a bowl near your entryway. Place your keys in the bowl when you come home. They stay there until you leave. No more lost keys. For more life hacks, read on. – JoAnn ©2023 King Features Synd., Inc.

• Got chewing gum stuck in your hair? Rub with a spoonful of peanut butter. Massage into the gum-stuck hair. The oil in the peanut butter breaks down the gum, and you then can wash or comb it out once you pick away the globs. How about on your clothes? Stick it in the freezer for several hours. The gum hardens, and you can literally peel it off in chunks. Use an old toothbrush to brush out any remaining crumbs of gum.

Festive films that make for a perfect family movie night this season •Elf (2003): Middle-aged Buddy (Will Ferrell) grew up in the North Pole believing he is an elf, despite being significantly larger than the kind-hearted elves who raised him. Upon learning he is not an actual elf, Buddy is determined to reunite with the father (James Caan) he's never known. Hilarity ensues as the innocent Buddy ends up in the big city in search of his father. TF23B460

Festive films that make for a perfect family movie night this season •"It's a Wonderful Life" (1946): Among the most beloved holiday movies ever made, this classic stars Jimmy Stewart as George Bailey, a devoted family man who set aside his own big-city dreams to save the family business and, ultimately, his small hometown of Bedford Falls. Lamenting some bad luck that leaves him on the cusp of financial ruin, George wishes he'd never been born, only to be shown by an especially kind and patient angel-in-training (Henry Travers) how much worse off Bedford Falls and its residents might have been had George Bailey never existed. ## Frankincense

This fragrant substance is harvested from the Boswellia sacra species, also known as the olibanum. This tree is native to Oman, Yemen and Somalia, and has a long history in folk medicine throughout Africa and Asia. In the Bible, it is one of three gifts offered to Jesus by the "wise men." It is said to control bleeding, help heal wounds, fight inflammation, improve oral health, and studies have shown it may even help treat cancer. — Brenda Weaver
