Recipe Corner

2 (10 oz.) cans refrigerated crescent roll dough
8 oz. package cream cheese, softened
2/3 cup mayonnaise
1 tsp. dried dill weed
1 tsp. minced onion
1/2 tsp. minced garlic
1/2 cup chopped cauliflower
1/2 cup chopped broccoli
1/2 cup chopped greenbell peppers
8 oz. package shredded Cheddar cheese

Vegetable Pizza Squares

• Preheat oven to 400°. Unroll crescent roll dough on a small baking sheet. Arrange into a single layer to serve as a crust. Bake in preheated oven 10 minutes, or until puffed and lightly browned. In a medium bowl, mix cream cheese, mayonnaise, dill weed, onion and garlic. Spread cream cheese mixture over crescent roll dough crust. Layer with cauliflower, broccoli and green peppers. Top with Cheddar cheese. Chill in refrigerator until serving.

Our Daily Bread

Are You Struggling?

Read: Hebrews 12:1-17

No chastening seems to be joyful . . . ; nevertheless, afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness. Hebrews 12:11

I was in my second year of widowhood and I was struggling. Morning after morning my prayer life consisted of one daily sigh: "Lord, I shouldn't be struggling like this!" "And why not?" His still, small voice asked me from within one morning.

Then the answer came—unrecognized pride! Somehow I had thought that a person of my spiritual maturity should be beyond such struggle. What a ridiculous thought, since I had never been a widow before and needed the freedom to be a true learner, even a struggling learner.

At the same time, I was reminded of the story of a man who took home a cocoon so he could watch the emperor moth emerge. As the moth struggled to get through the tiny opening, the man enlarged it with the snip of his scissors. The moth emerged easily—but its wings were shriveled. The struggle through the narrow opening is God's way to force fluid from its body into its wings. The "merciful" snip, in reality, was cruel.

Hebrews 12 describes the Christian life as an effort that involves discipline, correction, and training in righteousness. Surely such a race could not be run without a holy striving against self and sin. Sometimes the struggle is exactly what we need. by Joanie Yoder

When God allows His chastening hand to give us little rest, His only purpose is our good—He wants for us His best. —DJD

God's chastening is compassionate, never cruel.

Paws Corner

by Sam Mazzotta

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: This week, many Americans are celebrating their newest gift to the family: a cute puppy or kitten, duck or chicken, or pocket pets like hamsters and guinea pigs. It's also a time to form new resolutions in the New Year.

I hope that new pet owners' first resolution will be to establish a relationship with a veterinarian with expertise in their specific pet. Some pets need to start or continue a vaccination schedule so they grow up healthy – puppies are at risk of contracting parvovirus, for example, so bolstering their immune system is very important.

Your vet can also provide advice and tips for

caring for pets. Guinea pigs, hamsters and rabbits communicate happiness or distress in unique ways that a new owner may not be familiar with. Puppies are wiggly and energetic. Kittens are curious and fearless. Vets can help new owners navigate these waters and provide regular checkups to help keep pets healthy. – Dedicated Vet in Boston

DEAR DEDICATED: Thank you for sending this! Establishing a care routine with a veterinarian is so important. It should sit at the top of owners' to-do lists, along with providing comfortable warm bedding, a clean and safe environment, and especially for puppies, a daily training routine. Mark your calendar with key dates, including checkups with the vet, appointments with a trainer and regular resupply of food, litter, bedding and everything else your new pet needs.

Here's to a happy, healthy and fun New Year with your pet!

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Resolve to Make and Keep a Few Outdoor-Oriented New Year's Resolutions in 2024

Ten-Nine-Eight... Three-Two-One-Happy New Year! Did you make it? Did you stay up until midnight to watch the ball drop in Times Square in order to ring in 2024? Regardless, of whether you stayed up or not to start 2024, chances are pretty good you may have made one or more resolutions to start the New Year. Typically, New Year's resolutions fall into one of several broad categories: fitness, finances, faith, relationships, education, employment, habits, appearance/grooming, and health/well-being.

I applaud any positive changes you want to make for yourself in the upcoming year and wish you the best in keeping those commitments to yourself. However, I would like to expand your thinking and offer a few categories of outdoor-oriented New Year's resolutions you may want to consider adding for 2024.

1. Try or Learn Something New – Whether you are an experienced outdoorsperson or just a beginner, there are plenty of opportunities to expand your repertoire. If you're already a hunter, you may want to take up flint-lock muzzleloading, predator calling, reloading, or instinctive shooting with a recurve or long bow. Fishermen might want to pick up fly-fishing, fly-tying, trolling, or commit to catching their first husky muskie. Campers may want to expand their horizons by attempting bicycle, canoe, Winter camping, or their first solo backpacking excursion. Then there are many activities which are highly conducive to doing together with children or grandchildren, such as metal-detecting, geocaching, magnet-fishing, and wild-edible (edible plants, nuts, berries, and mushrooms) foraging. So many choices!

2. Frequency of an Activity – Maybe you desire to commit to doing something you already enjoy on a more regular basis. This could be getting out camping, fishing, hunting, or backpacking at least once every month of the year. Possibly, it may be your goal to go hiking, biking, or shooting on a more frequent basis, such as bi-weekly or even weekly. Then there are activities, such as paddling your kayak or canoe, which may become a bi-weekly or weekly pursuit during the Spring, Summer, and Fall. Then, it could be as simple as daily walking, whether that's around the block or a mile or two with your dog.

3. Go Someplace New – We are truly blessed to have so many locations to get outdoors within easy driving distance. The list includes: PA state parks, PA state forests, PA state game lands, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers projects, hiking trails, biking trails, waterways to paddle (rivers, streams, lakes, and reservoirs), and historical locations. Then there's over half-million acres of the Allegheny National Forest in PA to explore and many forget Ohio's Cuyahoga Valley National Park is less than 90-miles away. Maybe finding a new fishing, hunting, hiking, biking, paddling, or camping spot will do you good.

4. Add Variety – No matter how much you love the outdoors, doing the "same old, same old" can become "blah". Why not spice things up by seeing how many different species of fish you can catch in 2024, or how many different species of birds you can identify throughout the year, or even try hunting for as many different game species as possible, which may mean pursuing woodcock, wood ducks, or even woodchucks for the first time or for the first time in many years? A new hiking/biking trail, or a new waterway to paddle, always adds excitement, when you find what's over the next hill or around the bend.

5. Obtain New Equipment – This can be at the high end, like purchasing a new camper or boat. Towards the mid-range, such as a new fish finder, compound bow, or shotgun; or possibly relatively low cost, like primitive fire-starting techniques, such as a ferrous rod or flint & steel. Regardless of the cost, a learning curve comes with any new outdoor gear and the required familiarization process may be your 2024 goal.

6. Combining Activities – The limit is only your imagination and preferences. This may produce your first backpacking/hunting trip, paddling/bird-watching excursion, or remote fishing/camping outing. It may mean including others in outdoor activities you enjoy, such as family, friends, or even your dog.

7. Physical Exertion – You might want to merge your outdoor resolution(s) with your fitness resolution. This may look like your first 10-mile hike, 15-mile paddle, or 25-mile bike ride. It could also mean working out on a more regular basis to remain "outdoor excursion-ready", hiking a cumulative 100-miles on the North Country Trail in 2024, walking a total of 1000-miles throughout the year, or taking up "rucking", where you carry your backpack on your walks to add some resistance and build endurance.

The New Year has begun. It is a clean slate. Why not resolve to make and keep a few outdoor-oriented New Year's resolutions in 2024? You'll be glad you did! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2024

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

• Remove musty smell from stored clothes by adding either vinegar or ammonia to the wash water. Be sure to check for smell removal BEFORE drying, as the dryer can bake the smell into clothes, making it more difficult to remove.

• For drains slowed by grease, sprinkle a half-cup each of salt and baking soda down the drain, and follow it with an entire kettle or pot of boiling water. ©2024 King Features Synd., Inc.
