Kovels

Antiques and Collecting
by Terry and Kim Kovel

Q: How can I safely clean old coins?
A: Coins should not be cleaned. Collectors want coins with the patina unchanged. If your coins are collectible, they should be protected from fingerprints and stored properly. Don't touch the coins to examine them unless you are wearing white gloves. The oil from your skin will damage the coin. If you must touch a coin, hold it by the edge. Coins should not be stored loose in a box or envelope. They may be scratched. Paper, cardboard, plastic and wood give off chemical vapors that speed corrosion. You can buy archival coin holders online or at a coin shop. Coins should be kept in a cool, dry location.

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Mark Your Calendar, Save the Date, Sportsman's Night Out is Back on Fri., Feb. 23!

Tradition is a very powerful word. We have national traditions, like celebrating Thanksgiving. We can also have our own family traditions, such as the order you open your Christmas gifts in. Then there are certain community traditions that bring a significant number of folks together on a local basis at a certain time and place. One of our longstanding local traditions, here in Lawrence County, that people of all ages eagerly look forward to in February is Sportsman's Night Out at the Laurel Middle High School. Hosted, planned, set-up, and executed by the ambitious students of the Laurel Conservation Club, this year's event is scheduled for Friday, February 23, 2024, with the doors opening at 5:30 PM. You'll want to be there!

Like many things in life, Sportsman's Night Out was disrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic. I can recall it was one of the last public events I and many others attended in Feb. 2020 before the world shut down. It forced the cancellation of the 2021 rendition and severely altered 2022's event, which was much more low-key with limited publicity and attendance. According to faculty advisor, Mr. Ryan Shevitz, it also resulted in the decision for the students to subsequently only host Sportsman's Night Out every other year in the even-numbered years, which is why there was no gathering in 2023, but all the more reason for local outdoor-minded individuals to come out in mass in 2024! It doesn't matter if you reside in Lawrence County or not, if you are passionate about any aspect of the outdoors, I highly encourage you to come out together with your family and friends to support the students who put it all together and enjoy yourself.

If you've never attended Sportsman's Night Out, let me tell you it encompasses most of the first floor of the Laurel Middle High School, located at 2497 Harlansburg Road, New Castle, PA 16101 (across from the Lawrence County Fairgrounds along PA-108). Admittance is a mere $3.00 donation at the door, but once inside, there is a tremendous variety of activities/events to choose from. For those with children or grandchildren, there will be games of skill and chance set-up in the gymnasium, as well as an archery dunk tank in the AG Shop. Food items will be available for individuals looking to have a meal or just a snack. The classrooms will host a variety of 45-minute seminars to choose from with separate sessions starting at 6 PM and 7 PM.

Here's what will be offered: Room 117 – Turtle Soup (Wayne "Bigfoot" Anderson); Room 119 – Musky Fishing (Todd Young, Muddy Creek Fishing); Room 120 – Session #1; Naked & Afraid Survival Experience and Session #2; Bow Set-Up and Arrow Building (Michael & Michaelyn Grist); Room 123 – In the Depths: Where Trout Live (Adam Korman, Journey on the Fly); Room 126 – Food Plots (PABoyz Outdoors); Room 127 – Anything and Everything with Waterfowl (Specialty Outdoors); Room 133 (Woodshop) – Beaver Skinning/Fleshing (Paul Edeburn, Trapper Paul's); and in the CAD Lab - Spartan Industries (the student entrepreneurial class will display/sell their wares.)

Meanwhile in the hallways, lobby, and cafeteria there will a wide variety of vendors and displays to circulate amongst in order to learn something new or purchase their outdoor-related products. In addition to several local rod & gun clubs, if you choose to, you can visit: Larry Baker Taxidermy, the Lawrence County Conservation District, the PA Game Commission, the PA Fish & Boat Commission, H3 Game Calls, Junebug Game Calls, The Lodge at Waters Edge (along Slippery Rock Creek), the Pennsylv-Tucky Boys (creators of American steel deer mounts), Mark Begley's Fishing Memorabilia, and many more! Something very new this year is instead of a main speaker in the auditorium, the Laurel Conservation Club will welcome the popular local band Snarfunkle to the auditorium stage. Snarfunkle will play two separate sets with one starting at 7 PM and the second at 8 PM. So, you are welcome to take in one or the other set as you circulate throughout the evening or if you are just a music fan, you are welcome to come for the evening primarily to take in the concert. At 9 PM, everyone will be encouraged to gather in the auditorium for the $100 door prize (must be present to win), along with the 2024 raffles for four different firearms and over two dozen other prizes. Some lucky folks will be taking home some very nice items!

When I sat down with Mr. Shevitz and the LCC Student Leadership: President – Addison Deal; Vice President – Cheyenne Holben; and Secretary – Matthew Shaffer; these enthusiastic youth told me, "Sportsman's Night Out is a good community event where everyone has something in common (the outdoors) that's a staple of the community." Please come out to support the 98 hard-working students of the Laurel Conservation Club, they're our future outdoors! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2024

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: My cat, Buster, has been scratching under his chin for days, and the skin underneath the fur there is getting raw. What is causing this, and how do I stop the scratching and treat the injured skin? – David G., Buffalo, New York

Paws Corner
by Sam Mazzotta

DEAR DAVID: It's clear that something is aggravating your cat and causing him to scratch in just one spot. The problem could be dry skin – not unusual for pets or humans in the middle of winter – or allergies. It may also be an infection, a parasite (mites or ringworm) or an allergic reaction to fleas.

If the area that Buster is scratching is not infected, you can try a few home remedies to try to relieve the itching. Oatmeal, cooked and then cooled, is one option. Plain yogurt is another. And coconut oil may help moisturize and protect the skin. Dab one of these gently onto the itchy area. (Just a very thin coat; don't pile it on.) Repeat as needed.

If fleas are an issue, treat both your cat and your home to reduce and eliminate these little pests. Vacuum carpets thoroughly. Sweep all the corners and underneath furniture to remove dust bunnies, where fleas and their eggs can hide.

If these remedies don't work within a couple of days, or if your cat exhibits signs of infection or illness, contact the veterinarian. They need to take a look and see what exactly is causing the itching. They'll also have medication on hand to combat the itch (hydrocortisone, for one) and treat infection. If Buster is scratching compulsively, they may put him into an E-collar (aka the "Cone of Shame") for a few days to let the spot heal fully. ©2024 King Features

Get a Boost With No-Bake Peanut Butter Protein Energy Balls

Kids just know how to have fun, especially on those mornings when they wake up to news of school closing due to extreme weather conditions. A day without a rushed agenda is completely theirs to create, play, read and cook!

On a recent subzero snow day, sisters Mary and Izzy Toth discovered the magical time of a free day by building a basement fort over tables and furniture and reading stories with flashlights in their cozy spaces. When time came to crawl out of their imaginative "far away" world for a snack upstairs, they decided to create their own treat.

With Grandma Mary on the sidelines, they rummaged through her kitchen and scooped uncooked oatmeal into a bowl, stirred in peanut butter until it was at a "just right consistency," added a dash of cinnamon spice, then rolled the concoction into bite-sized balls. After chilling them for a few minutes to firm them up, the girls poked toothpicks in each one and arranged them with mandarin oranges on plates. "They came up with a pretty healthy snack without any coaching from me," said Mary.

As the girls discovered, when good peanut butter is the base, the options are endless for no-bake snacks that come together in minutes. Here's a more complex, yet easy-to-make combination of ingredients for protein energy balls with peanut butter that my friend Mary Clapp, certified nutrition coach and personal trainer, came up with for on-the-go snacking and an extra boost during her day.

I make mine with natural or vanilla whey protein powder and add unsweetened cocoa powder. She uses natural, chocolate-flavored whey protein powder. Either way, after you mix and roll them in coconut, you'll discover a tasty cookie-like treat that is full of energy-boosting ingredients.

NO-BAKE PEANUT BUTTER PROTEIN ENERGY BALLS

- Makes 20-22 energy balls
- 1/4 cup water
 - 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter or almond butter
 - 1/4 cup honey
 - 1/2 cup uncooked steel cut oats
 - 3/4 cup natural or vanilla whey protein powder
 - 2 tablespoons natural unsweetened cocoa powder
 - 3 tablespoons unsweetened shredded coconut

Mix all ingredients except the coconut in a bowl. Spoon coconut in a separate bowl.

Scoop a tablespoon of the mixture and roll it into a ball with your hands. Gently roll the ball in the coconut and set in a storage container. Refrigerate for 15 minutes, then serve. Store in refrigerator. Freezes well.

Alternative Idea: Use 3/4 cup chocolate-flavored whey protein powder in lieu of plain or vanilla and omit cocoa powder.

Fisherman's Quick Fish

4 (6 oz.) fillets cod
1 cup creamy Italian-style salad dressing
1/4 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
1 cup crushed potato chips

Preheat oven to 475°. Coat a 9"x13" baking dish with non-stick cooking spray. In a medium bowl, marinate the fish fillets in the salad dressing for a few minutes. Toss the shredded cheese and crushed chips together. Place the marinated fish fillets in the prepared baking dish and top with the cheese/chip mixture. Discard the leftover marinade. Bake, uncovered in the preheated oven for 8 to 10 minutes or until the fish can be flaked with a fork. (Lower oven temperature if using glass bakeware and bake a few minutes longer.)

Realism And Romance

Read: Ephesians 5:22-33

Husbands, love your wives . . . Let the wife see that she respects her husband. —Ephesians 5:25,33

Good marriages have a balance. The practical realities of daily living are enhanced by the joy and spontaneity of continually falling in love with each other.

Realism can help a husband to see that he is taking his wife for granted and is not being sensitive to her feelings. It can cause a wife to see that her critical comments are tearing down her husband's self-respect.

Realism is not enough, however. Romance, often discarded after the wedding, keeps a marriage from growing dull. It can prevent the kind of situation depicted in the cartoon of an elderly couple sitting on the front porch of their home. The husband is saying, "Sometimes, Sarah, when I think of how much you mean to me, I can hardly keep from telling you so."

Paul's words in Ephesians 5 encourage a love between two people that reflects Christ's self-sacrificing devotion to His church. In addition, it's a love filled with kindness and tenderness.

Whether you're dating or have been married half a year or half a century, Christ can help you balance your relationship with realism and romance. Keep drawing on His love and see what it does for your marriage. by Dennis J. De Haan

Despite the faults that partners have, their marriage still can thrive; but both must look to God for help to keep their love alive. — JDB

The bonds of matrimony aren't worth much unless the interest is kept up.

6 Valentine's Day Traditions

Valentine's Day is a day of love nestled in the middle of February. Sweethearts use Valentine's Day as an opportunity to show the people they care about just how deep those feelings run. A 2023 survey from the National Retail Federation found consumers expected to spend $25.9 billion on Valentine's Day, up from $23.9 billion in 2022. Forecasters suspect spending is likely to increase this year as well.

Valentine's Day is awash in many different customs. Here's a deep look at some of those enduring traditions and others that some may feel should be brought back into favor or adopted entirely.

••• Handwritten Cards •••

It's a common scene each year in card retailers and pharmacies: people three-deep in the aisle trying to pick out Valentine's Day cards in the eleventh hour. People can save themselves the hassle of fighting the crowds if they make their own handmade cards. In the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, sweethearts created unique cards from scratch, according to Country Living. And prior to products produced by Hallmark and other greeting card companies, people used to send one another cards customized with personalized messages.

••• Pampering Gentlemen •••

It is common in North America for Valentine's Day celebrations to lean significantly toward favoring women, who are often on the receiving end of flowers and chocolates. However, in South Korea and Japan, it is the men who are pampered with such gifts. Women purchase chocolates for their male partners, family members and coworkers as tokens of appreciation and affection. Never fear, a month later on White Day (March 14) men reciprocate with candy, cake and flowers.

••• Bouquets •••

These days a dozen long-stemmed red roses might be the norm for Valentine's Day gifting. However, roses weren't always the preferred flower for the holiday. History.com reports that, in the nineteenth century, bouquets might contain all sorts of flowers, each chosen to convey certain messages. Individuals can research the meanings behind certain flowers and put together a Valentine's Day gift this year that expresses exactly what they are feeling.

••• Puzzle Purses •••

Sweethearts in Victorian England created "puzzle purses," which were a series of love letters that could be read separately, but also fit together to create a design and message. These intricately folded sheets of paper had parts of messages or verses written on different corners and were meant to be read in a specific order.

••• Heart-Shaped Chocolate Boxes •••

British chocolatier Richard Cadbury is credited with creating the first heart-shaped box for Valentine's Day. The boxes were intended to be so beautiful they would be kept to hold trinkets or love letters. Ornate chocolate boxes are not quite as common today, although the gifting of chocolate for the holiday is still strong.

••• Celebrating in June? •••

Many Brazilians skip Valentine's Day in February and choose to celebrate Saint Anthony, the patron saint of marriage and matchmaking, on June 12. Celebrating both is fine for those who prefer to shower affection on loved ones multiple times a year.

Valentine's Day traditions are still strong and can add a little something extra to celebrations this February. TF242700

Now Here's A Tip

by JoAnn Derson

• "Tissue boxes can be used to hold plastic baggies under the sink in the bathroom. I use grocery-store bags to line my bathroom trash can. I choose a color-coordinated tissue box that has been emptied, and I fill it with the plastic liners, then set it under the toilet tank. It's still nice-looking, even though it's out of the way, and I have baggies at the ready." - E.R. in MS

• This is a fun game for kids to play with cookies: Stamp the alphabet letters into the top of mini cookies, or use a kebab skewer to write words. Then let the kids spell out their name or make sentences or silly phrases. - B.D. in Mississippi
