Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

If You Have the Passion, Find Your Purpose,
Enroll as a PA State Game Warden Cadet!

I still remember the assignment. It was Fifth Grade English Class and we had to do a report on what we wanted to be when we grew up. However, Mrs. Astleford threw in the twist we had to find an adult who did that particular job or profession and interview them. My final report was a series of questions I had come up with and the answers my adult interviewee gave me, handwritten in pencil in my best cursive penmanship. I dove right into the assignment and my subject, who I anxiously, yet eagerly, interviewed in his home office in Conyngham, PA was Mr. Robert Nolf, the PA Game Protector for Luzerne County. Over the years, the PA Game Commission's Field Officers have gone by a variety of names. In 1974 they were still called Game Protectors, eventually they transitioned to Wildlife Conservation Officers, and today their titles are PA State Game Wardens. Down the road, my life choices took me on a different path into uniformed service and a military career, yet I've always had tremendous respect and admiration for the men and women who have made wildlife law enforcement and conservation their life's work.

In my second career as an outdoor writer and lecturer, I have regular contact with members of the PA Game Commission, from the Senior Staff Members at their State HQs in Harrisburg, to their six Regional Offices, and the individual State Game Wardens out-in-the-field in each county. Last Friday, Feb. 16, I had the opportunity to man the Pennsylvania Outdoor Writers Association (POWA) booth at the Sportsmen's Show at the Monroeville Convention Center. There I ran into someone I knew, Matt Kramer, the PA State Game Warden for Beaver County. Matt was one of several Game Wardens and Deputy Game Wardens proudly representing the PA Game Commission at their booth and interacting with the public. However, Matt was uniquely chosen to give a recruiting seminar on "Becoming a PA State Game Warden Cadet" for anyone who chose to attend. Having previously met Matt at the PGC's 2023 State Game Warden Graduation Ceremony, where I had the privilege to deliver the Keynote Address and Matt provided his stirring rendition of our National Anthem (we're talking he could replace Jeff Jimerson at Penguins games), I offered to do a piece to assist Matt's efforts and he graciously provided me his notes.

Now, the information I'm providing is for those few select men and women in our area who have the interest and passion to begin the lengthy, arduous process towards becoming a PA State Game Warden, which begins as a Cadet. For everyone else, this will provide some understanding of the rigorous mental, physical, and psychological requirements each applicant must meet on their journey towards eventual appointment as a PA State Game Warden. As you read this, maybe you know of a man or woman who you believe has what it takes to become a PA State Game Warden, so I highly encourage you to pass this information along to them. The Cadet application window closes March 7, 2024, so this is time sensitive!

The requirements for becoming a PA State Game Warden Cadet include: (1) Graduation from high school or an accredited G.E.D. certification (previously 60 college credits were required); and (2) Possession of an active Class C driver's license; and (3) Proof of successful completion of a state-level hunter safety course. Candidates do not have to be a PA resident to apply. Cadets must be 21 years of age at the date of admission to the training school (so you can start the process under 21)). There is no maximum age. The application process takes roughly a year from start to finish. January through March 7, 2024 - Application open. March 30 or sooner - Civil Service written exam. June - Physical screening (sit-ups, push-ups, bench press, vertical jump, 300-meter run, & 1.5-mile run). Jul. through Sep. - Background and reference checks. Oct. - In-person interview with Senior Staff. Nov. - Medical screening (drug screening, swim test, physical exam, visual, and hearing), Dec. - Psychological test, Jan. 2025 - Formal Employment offer extended, and finally March 2025 - Class is seated in the Ross Leffler School of Conservation (RLSC) in Harrisburg, PA. Cadets are paid $1,764 bi-weekly (roughly $46K annual). Veterans are encouraged to apply. The resident Cadet training program is 44 weeks with 34-weeks of classroom instruction (weekends off) and 10-weeks of field assignment. Graduation of RLSC Class #37 will be in Feb. 2026. For more info and application procedures, please go to the PA Game Commission's website (pgc.pa.gov) and search: Game Warden Careers. I know becoming a PA State Game Warden isn't for everyone, but I do know there are a few individuals reading this or who you know, who have the "Right Stuff". Let's encourage them to take the first step! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2024

Our Daily Bread

Wrong Worship

This trade of ours [is] in danger of falling into disrepute. —Acts 19:27. Read: Acts 19:23-41

If you really want to get folks upset, threaten their economy.

A bad economic picture gets politicians voted out of office, and the threat of a downturn nearly got the apostle Paul kicked out of Ephesus.

Here's what happened. Paul came to town and started "reasoning and persuading concerning . . . the kingdom of God" (Acts 19:8). For more than 2 years he shared the gospel, and many began following Jesus.

Because Paul was so successful in getting people to see that there is only one true God, many Ephesians stopped worshipping the goddess Diana. This was bad news for the local silversmiths, who made their living creating and selling Diana statuettes. If enough people stopped believing in her, business would dry up. A commotion and an uproar broke out when the craftsmen figured this out.

This Ephesus incident can remind us to evaluate our reasons for worshipping God. The silversmiths wanted to protect their worship as a way of protecting their prosperity, but may that never be said of us. Don't ever let your worship of God become an avenue to good fortune.

We worship God because of His love for us and because of who He is, not because loving Him can help our bottom line. Let's worship God the right way, by Dave Bannon

We worship God for who He is, And not because of what we'll get; When we acknowledge what we owe,

We'll thank Him that He paid our debt. —Sperry

Don't worship God to gain His benefits you already have them.

CROSSWELL CANVAS: Need a boat cover? Custom tarps for all your canvas needs, 25 years experience; call Jerry 724-475-3779 ¹²⁻²⁰⁻²⁴

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: My dog Trey is a 3-year-old mixed breed, mostly Lab, who pulls at his leash every time we go out for a walk. I don't want to use a choke collar, because it seems painful and counterproductive to punish him every time he tries to pull ahead. How can I get Trey to walk next to me and not tug all the time? – Bill in New Orleans

DEAR BILL: Dogs love being outside and exploring. That's a big reason why Trey is tugging at his leash – he wants to run and explore everything in the world. But that's not possible in the city. And for the sake of your leash-holding arm, getting Trey to relax is a big deal.

You're probably saying, "Oh, this is where Sam tells us to reinforce basic obedience training." And you're right. It's important for Trey to follow your commands, especially if he pulls the leash out of your hand. But that's just one element to leash training a dog.

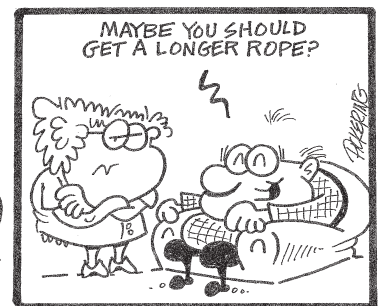

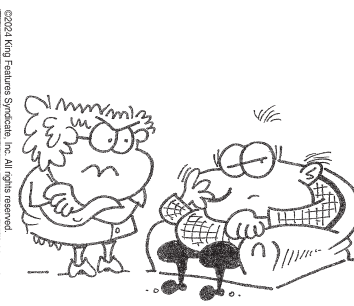

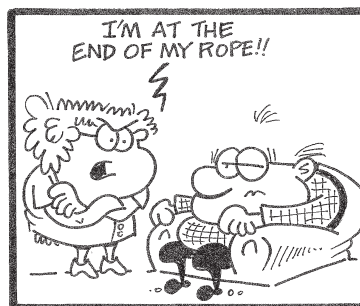

When you pull on the leash to slow Trey down, he will automatically pull in the opposite direction. This is a reflex action. The more you pull, the more they dig in.

So instead, try a misdirection-reward strategy. Give the command "heel" and have Trey walk calmly beside you, with the leash slack. Whenever he gets ahead of you (before the tug of war starts), stop and change direction. He'll turn to go in the direction you're heading, and when he does, give him lots of praise and maybe (at first) a little treat. Do this every time he tries to move ahead of you.

If Trey tends to pull really hard, change from a collar and leash to a chest harness. This prevents injury and can make it easier to control him. ©2024 King Features Synd., Inc.

Fun ways to spend extra Leap Day hours

The sentiment that there aren't enough hours in the day may be true for busy families and individuals. However, once every four years, everyone is given an extra day on their calendars in February. Although Leap Day is designed to move the clock and calendar more in line with the Earth's rotation around the sun, which takes slightly longer than 365 days, it also can be an exciting opportunity to relax and have some fun. The following are some ways to maximize that extra day of the year.

• Learn about leaplings! A leapling is a person who was born on February 29 during a leap year. Highlights magazine reports the odds of being a leapling is one in 1,461. Find out if anyone you know is a leaping or research celebrity leaplings.

• Celebrate Leap Day! Even if Leap Day isn't an official holiday, it is worthy of celebration. Figure out a theme for your party, and then invite friends over for an extra day of revelry or relaxation.

• Take the day off! Make the most of Leap Day by enjoying a mental health day and taking off from work or school, if possible. Spend the day engaged in hobbies or other activities.

• Leapin' lizards! Kids may enjoy reading up on or learning about the various animals that are good at leaping, which can include frogs or flying squirrels. Children and adults can take turns doing their own leaping long jumps to see who can leap the farthest.

• Calculate your leap year age! Students can practice math and have fun in the process by dividing each person's age by four to determine what age they would be had they been born on a Leap Day.

• Commemorate in fours! Do everything for the day in fours. Enjoy four scoops of ice cream or commit to a four-hour hike. Go out to lunch or dinner with friends and spend four hours finding out everything that has been going on in the lives of others. Watch a movie marathon that adds up to four hours of fantastic cinema.

• Leap into community service! Use the extra time for doing good. Figure out where you can volunteer your services and make Leap Day all about giving back.

Leap Day is an opportunity to engage in fun or relaxing activities everyone can enjoy. TF242739

•••• 29 Famous Leaplings ••••

Being born on Leap Day can be both entertaining and frustrating, as it means having to celebrate your birthday on a day that is not exactly the true anniversary of your birth. However, since February 29 comes around just once every four years, it may mean you can celebrate four times as much to make up for lost time. Many notable individuals were born on February 29. Here's a look at 29 well-known individuals who were born on February 29.

• "My mother-in-law has a digital photo frame, and about every six months we send her a new flash drive to plug into the back of it. She does not have a computer, so she enjoys the picture show and can go back to the old pictures as well whenever she wants just by plugging a different drive into the frame. What a great way to share photos with a different generation." - A.T. in Missouri

Give Your HEARING the HEARING It Deserves.

Accepting Any Insurance Benefits Available

After five long years of attempting to regain her practice, Donna Gallo Robison's Hearing Center has reopened. Donna has been serving the hearing impaired for over 32 years. She has been a true advocate selling and fitting hearing aids and giving the hearing impaired a better quality of life and the best hearing they can get.

Donna says she was led back by her heart to reopen again and also by popular demand. She's inviting past, present and future patients to stop in and welcome her back. She'll be happy to answer questions about hearing loss, hearing aids, and explain the new technology available and discuss hearing aid cost differentials that can be very confusing.

Call to make an appointment to get evaluated. A complete Audiometric Exam will be given to determine the cause and reason for your hearing impairment. A new line of Cognitive Testing can be performed along with the hearing evaluation which is available for those who may think their hearing loss is affected by age and related mental issues.

Strange But True

• A man in the U.K. who became paralyzed after a cycling accident spent four years raising 22,000 pounds for an innovative treatment that might enable him to walk again. However, when he heard of a disabled boy who also needed surgery, that had better odds of success, he donated the entire amount to the child instead.
