Our Daily Bread

We Need One Another

Read: Hebrews 10:19-25

As His custom was, [Jesus] went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day. —Luke 4:16

If recent polls can be trusted, an upsurge of Lone Ranger spirituality is occurring in the United States. Church attendance is down. Biblical beliefs are being abandoned. More and more of our fellow citizens are looking inward, online, and out-of-doors for the uplift they once sought in church sanctuaries.

How different from Jesus! He made it His practice to join in synagogue services regularly (Luke 4:16). But today, people no longer take Him as an example. They settle for what is loosely called "spirituality" and try to nurture their souls without the timeless traditions of congregational praise, prayer, biblical instruction, and edifying fellowship.

To gather regularly with other worshipers is an uplifting source of comfort, inspiration, and emotional strength. The Bible urges us not to forsake "the assembling of ourselves together" (Hebrews 10:25).

We should, of course, have regular devotional times by ourselves. Just as surely, we need the blessing of uniting with other believers for worship and fellowship. We need to spend time together "in order to stir up love and good works" (v.24). We need to make it our habit to worship with others. We need one another. By Vernon C. Grounds

We each can have sweet fellowship with Jesus As through the Word we learn to trust Him more;

But we must also meet with one another

As in His name we worship and adore. —Hess

Christians are like coals of fire—together, they glow; apart, they grow cold.

Recipe Corner

TASTY STROMBOLI

1 loaf frozen white-bread dough, thawed and still cool (such as the Rhodes brand)
 Olive oil

4 oz. fresh whole spinach leaves, washed, dry
 6 slices pastrami or ham
 6 slices provolone cheese
 6 slices mozzarella cheese
 1/2 cup sliced red pepper (fresh or processed in oil)

• Cut loaf of thawed dough in half and roll out each half into a 12"x8" rectangle on a lightly floured surface. Let your kids brush dough lightly with olive oil. Place 1/4 of spinach leaves over each half of dough, leaving about a 1" border all around where there will be no filling. Top spinach with a layer of pastrami or ham, provolone, remaining spinach, mozzarella and red pepper. Starting from the long side, roll it up in a jelly-roll fashion, and secure seams carefully by pinching dough. (This will keep it tightly closed while baking.) Place rolls seam-side down on a lightly oiled baking sheet. Score top of each roll with a small knife, making a few short slits. Cover with a cloth and let rise for 20-30 minutes at room temperature. Bake at 325° for 30 minutes, or until golden brown. To get a nice, crisp crust, baste several times with a light coating of oil when baking. Serve warm or cool and cut slices about 1" thick for serving. Serve with marinara sauce on the side.

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Are You Taking Full Advantage of What Our PA State Parks Have to Offer?

It's pretty amazing how the taglines or jingles from certain commercials stick with you for a lifetime. If you were born before 1980, you probably remember one stock brokerage firm's familiar phrase from their frequent TV advertisements, "When E.F. Hutton talks, people listen," which always featured anyone nearby suddenly eavesdropping and actively listening in. (If you're not familiar with their commercials, you can view them on YouTube for a laugh.) Well, one primary reason I enjoy attending the PA Outdoor Writers Association's (POWA's) annual conferences is for the Saturday morning "Craft Improvement" sessions. There, tips on improving the quality of your writing, enhancing your photography skills, and expanding the market for your works are shared. Well-known Fayette County outdoor writer, Ben Moyer, is our Craft Improvement Committee Chairman and amongst fellow outdoor writers, he is our "E.F. Hutton," whose words speak volumes and everyone wants to hear, so they can learn something from him.

Well, I was rather pleased during our 2021 POWA Conference when Ben shared one of his favorite tips from his over 40-years of outdoor communications experience for generating future story ideas, since it was something I had already come across on my own and had been incorporating into my weekly outdoor writings for several years. Now, I'm going to share this valuable tip with you, since it not only benefits outdoor writers, but it also opens doors for new outdoor experiences and expanded outdoor knowledge for the general public as well, who are often unaware these opportunities actually exist for their participation.

We are blessed to have over 125 State Parks in PA. They fall under the jurisdiction of the PA Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR), which also has responsibility for our extensive PA State Forest System. Unlike neighboring New York, where you usually have to pay an entrance fee just to visit their state parks, PA's state parks offer free access to visitors with specific user fees for additional amenities like camp sites, cabin rentals, or boat rentals. The secret, which isn't really a secret, it's just that a lot of people simply do not know, is that our PA State Park System offers a wide variety of environmental education and recreation programs, which include outdoor-oriented programs, guided walks, and educational activities, with the goal of increasing participants' overall understanding, appreciation, and sense of stewardship toward our Commonwealth's natural and cultural resources.

Our PA State Park System employs full-time and seasonal Environmental Education Specialists, who head up these outreach efforts to the general public and also specific programs tailored towards students and teachers. Over the years, I have participated in DCNR programs focused on kayaking, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, fishing, fly-fishing, hiking, guided walks, park history, First Day (Jan. 1st) hikes, night hikes, star-gazing, and the list goes on. Many activities are focused on the beginner or uninitiated, so equipment and fundamental instruction are typically provided for free or at minimal cost. This is a great way to teach yourself, your children, or your grandchildren to fish, kayak, bird-watch, etc., if you do not have a family member or friend with the knowledge and equipment to introduce you to the activity.

Nearby Moraine and McConnells Mill State Parks share an Environmental Education Specialist and you can call (724) 368-8811 to inquire about their upcoming activities and get put on their email list to be one of the first ones to know and sign-up when new programs/activities are announced. I have become good friends with Pymatuning and Goddard State Parks' full-time Environmental Education Specialist, Jared McGary, and have frequently attended his scheduled events. On Sat., Apr. 27, 2024, Jared conducted free, guided Bald Eagle tours on Pymatuning Reservoir out of the Linesville Marina on a pontoon boat. My wife, my son, and two other couples were on the 11 AM 90-minute tour and we saw an immature Bald Eagle, two mature Bald Eagles (the female was on their nest and the male was on-guard nearby), ospreys, cormorants, Great blue herons, and a meandering muskrat in mid-lake. You too can take advantage of upcoming free excursions like this with Jared by calling him at the Pymatuning Park Office at (724) 932-3142 and following the prompts. If you get on his email list, you too will know what's coming up.

This Summer, if you are traveling in PA and plan on visiting our diverse state parks, I highly encourage you to check out what they are offering. Our PA State Parks offer tremendous opportunities for everyone, if you take advantage of their diverse programs/activities! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2024

Strange But True

by Lucie Winborne

- Football player Ronaldinho Gaucho lost a $750,000 deal with Coca-Cola simply by taking a sip from a Pepsi.
- When an astronaut working on the International Space Station needed a tool he didn't have, NASA came to the rescue by designing one with computer software and emailing the file to him. He then used a 3D printer to create the first object ever designed on Earth but made in space. ©2024 King Features Synd., Inc.

Kovels
Antiques and Collecting by Terry and Kim Kovel
Q: I have a Montgomery Ward catalog from 1920 or earlier in perfect condition. What is it worth?
A: Aaron Montgomery Ward, the founder of Montgomery Ward, started his mail-order business in Chicago in 1872. The company's first catalog, a single sheet, listed 163 items. Millions of catalogs were published each year beginning in the early 1900s. The first Montgomery Ward retail stores opened in 1926. The last of the stores closed in 2001. The company was sold in 2004 and again in 2008. It is now an online-only retailer. Value depends on age, content, cover art and condition. Some sell for $35 to $50. Catalogs printed before 1900 bring higher prices. Only a few sell for $100 or more.

Now Here's A Tip
 by JoAnn Derson

• Clean out hard-water stains and mineral deposits on your shower-head with this trick: Fill a zip-lock baggie halfway with warm vinegar. Immerse your shower-head in the baggie and secure it to the pipe with a rubber band. Let it hang for an hour or so, then release the bag and scrub the showerhead with a soft toothbrush.

• You might not have a blackboard in your home, but keep a clean blackboard eraser around to get streaks off of freshly cleaned windows. It works really well in the car, too!

Strange But True
by Lucie Winborne

• Just before WWII, the U.S. created the Logan Bar, a chocolate bar that deliberately tasted "a little better than a boiled potato," as an emergency ration to prevent soldiers from snacking on it outside of emergency situations.
• The Black Diamond is a rare (and expensive) apple, with its jet-black hue, sweeter-than-honey taste, and crispness unmatched by any other apple. But don't look for it in your local grocery store; you'll only find this gem in Tibet. ©204 King Features Synd., Inc.
