Our Daily Bread

No Dumping Allowed

Read: Psalm 113:1-9

[The Lord] raises the poor out of the dust, and lifts the needy out of the ash heap. —Psalm 113:7

For several years I've worked in a ministry to drug addicts, and I've seen Christ transform many who had lost hope. Yet in response to a newspaper article about our work, I received a letter from someone who said, "You are wasting your time working with worthless drug addicts. They should be given a lethal injection and tossed on the city dump."

How heartless! These people need a massive dose of good news. They (and also that letter writer) need to hear that God doesn't cast us sinners off on some trash heap. On the contrary, He loved this world so much that He sent His only Son to die for our sins. And whoever puts his faith in Him will not perish, but will be given eternal life (Jn. 3:16).

Some people visit dumps, searching for objects to redeem and restore. According to Psalm 113, God looks compassionately on human castaways. He seeks ways to lift them out of the ash heaps of sin and death, and to give them a place of honor and dignity (vv.7-8).

If that is God's response to this world's castaways, we should make it ours. We too were lost in the depths of sin but were raised to newness of life. God says of sinners, "No dumping allowed!"

In loving kindness Jesus came
My soul in mercy to reclaim,
And from the depths of sin and shame
Through grace He lifted me. —Gabriel

Christ was lifted up on the cross
that we might be lifted out of our sin.

Outdoor Opportunities

By COL (Ret.) Grey D. Berrier II

Coming September 14 – God's Great Outdoors!
A Free Event at New Covenant Church

There are signs we're progressing towards my favorite season: Fall! We've already had three rounds of PA antlerless license sales, nighttime temperatures are dropping into the 40s, and children are heading back to school. With the calendar soon turning over to September, it's time to start thinking about and looking forward to Fall-oriented outdoor activities and events. Starting this week and continuing for the next two WBB editions (Aug. 30 and Sep. 6), I'm going to be sharing three exciting outdoor-oriented activities scheduled in our area that you may possibly choose to participate in, along with your family members and friends. I want to get the word out in advance, so you can mark your calendar and be there!

Don't you love something brand new and the opportunity to be present when something special happens for the very first time! Well, outdoorsmen, women, and youths are always looking for opportunities to gather with like-minded individuals to rub elbows and learn something new when it comes to what they are so passionate about. Coming up on Saturday, September 14, New Covenant Evangelical Presbyterian Church, located just east of New Castle at 1911 Harlansburg Road (along PA-108 before you get to the Fairgrounds and Laurel High School) is hosting their first-ever God's Great Outdoors, a free event.

Pastor Emeritus George Yates, Program Leader Denny Neese, and their team have put together an exciting itinerary you'll want to be part of. Doors open at 9 AM to start visiting displays from various local outdoor experts and organizations. Seminars start at 10 AM with concurrent presentations you'll have the opportunity to choose from. Lunch will be provided at 12 PM (allow me to mention it's a free lunch). The keynote speaker will go on at 1 PM, to be followed by a drawing for the many door prizes (each attendee gets one free ticket), and the day's action-packed itinerary will wrap-up around 2 PM. Whether you're a seasoned outdoorsperson or you're just getting started, there will be something for you!

God's Great Outdoors will include hunting, fishing, camping, and other outdoor-oriented subjects. Each seminar presenter will conduct two sessions, one at 10 AM and the second at 11 AM. They include: (1) Turkey Hunting with Dave Messner; (2) The Health of Western PA Woods presented by DCNR Forester Jessica Pierce; (3) North Country

Trail with Dennis Garrett; (4) Walleye Fishing on Local Lakes and Rivers presented by Joe Breedlove; (5) Prepare for Outdoor Stress with Erin Altman from UPMC; (6) Bass Fishing presented by Stan Makita; (7) Local PA State Parks with a DCNR Park Ranger; and (8) Archery presented by Fur Feather Fur Outfitters' archery pro Jonathon Creed. There are so many excellent topics to choose from, I'm already having a difficult time deciding which two I'll sit in on to learn things.

I'm humbled fellow veteran, Chaplain George Yates, asked me to be the keynote speaker for their inaugural God's Great Outdoors event. I've decided to title my presentation God's Great Outdoors, since it covers two of my biggest passions, the outdoors and my faith. I'll be sharing stories, tips, and practical advice on hunting, fishing, camping, and other outdoor activities, along with having the opportunity to share many great photos and video clips that go along with numerous previous pieces I've written here in the WBB. I look forward to sharing from my heart, meeting readers, and answering your questions!

One of the displays I'm looking forward to seeing and learning more about is Trail Life USA, an adventure program for boys, which meets at New Covenant Church, and who will be setting up a model campsite and pioneering project display. (It sounds like Trail Life is similar to what the Boy Scouts were when they first started and moved away from.) Now, I must tell you the inaugural God's Great Outdoors free event is limited to the first 200-people who register (each family member must be registered separately, if more than one is attending). Pre-registration is required by Sat., September 7, by registering online at: www.newcovenantepc.com; calling the church office: (724) 652-8062; or scanning the QR Code on one of the informational brochures they have posted at various outdoor-oriented businesses. They do have free table space for sport stores and other outdoor vendors to set up and sell merchandise, which can be reserved by emailing: ncepc.event@gmail.com Now, I would be remiss if I did not tell you what free door prizes you might win, if you are there. Their great door prizes include: a deer blind, trail camera, survival pack, Federal Cartridge box, several gift cards, and more (you must attend to find out)!

I'm really excited New Covenant Church is adding another outdoor-oriented event to our lives. Let's all show up to make it a big success and an annual occurrence! God Bless, Be Safe, and Great Outdoors! ©WBB 2024
